- Dean Jason is working on filling the gaps on the supply list. It was fun to see so many people together on Zoom attending the Advent study. He is working with Bishop Miller and Rachel Sosebee to find an Assigned SAM for Emanuel, for increased pastoral presence, maybe ¼ time.
- Two changes to the Investment Policy Statement were approved.
- Budget update: Sharon explained that 4.3% of investments may need to be taken to balance the budget, due to increases in expenses beyond our control. Employees will receive a raise. Line item 'Hospitality' has been eliminated.
- Annual report needs to be sent to the congregation by 1/11/26, 2 weeks prior to the meeting.
- Property: We may need to obtain paid help to shovel the walk ways, as we don't have enough volunteers. The handles of the FH doors are difficult to manage, and could pose a safety hazard.
- Education: Caren will lead First Communion classes on Thursdays 1/28, 2/5 and 2/12 at 4:30pm in the basement of the church.

Caren Listopadzki, Council Secretary

From the Council Vice President:

Self-Care! Christmas day is past. New Years has come and gone. Do you practice self-care or know what it means? Google artificial intelligence says self-care involves intentional actions to support your overall well-being (physical, mental, emotional, social, spiritual), helping manage stress, prevent burnout, and improve health through activities like exercise, healthy eating, sufficient sleep, setting boundaries, hobbies, connection with loved ones, practicing mindfulness. It's a personalized process of listening to your needs and taking proactive steps, from simple hygiene to deeper practices like therapy, ensuring your needs are met to live well.

That's all nice, but what does that mean for most of us? For those of us still employed or volunteer regularly, it can mean taking a day off for a personal wellness day when you need a break. It means taking vacation at regular intervals so you can recuperate in body and soul.

For our aging congregation self-care can mean going to Bone Builders regularly, attending bible study or book clubs, participating in WELCA meetings, and attending worship services. Self-care also can include a daily phone call check in with a loved one or a midday time of rest or nap. Our time of daily devotions is also another form of self-care.

What we often don't practice are the "nos". Self-care by saying no is often harder to do. I often struggle when I practice self-care by not doing something. I often call Ashley when I have missed church due to my condition. She has a unique way of getting me to see that it is ok to stay home if I need to.

Ashley: Why do you go to church?

Me: To worship God Ashley: Can you do that at home? Me: Yes. Ashley: Why else? Me: To enjoy other people's company. Ashley: Do you enjoy being around other people when you hurt a lot?

Me: No Ashley: Why then do you feel guilty about not going if you won't enjoy being there?

Me: I don't know, that is why I call you.

It is ok to say no to something if it is for the right reason.

We can worship from home if we don't feel well or the weather is hazardous. We should spend time together when it's practical. Humans are social creatures and self-care includes spending time in the company of others. We should worship God in the communion of other Christians and share in the fellowship of our family and friends whenever it's possible to do so.

In Peace, Annette, VP

Hospitality Report

Happy New Year! As we begin the new year, I would like to share that I have volunteered to be the lead for the hospitality committee. I do enjoy our good food and hosting, but I will say being responsible for organizing and planning gatherings for our church family feels a little daunting. I know I have many helpers and friends at church to help me.

Our first event in 2026 is the annual meeting on January 25th.

I will have a sign-up sheet to sign up for a dish-to-pass, which will be in the narthex. We always appreciate our variety of good food and desserts. We also cannot overlook the set-up and clean-up. The old phrase “many hands make light work” rings true and allows for a productive, efficient meeting in our busy lives.

I look forward to working with everyone and am always open to your ideas.
Thank you for your guidance and prayers as I begin my new role in this ministry.
God’s blessings for you in the new year,
Sue Doyle

ANNUAL UN-HANGING OF THE GREENS!

Sunday, January 4th,
after worship
Never as much fun as hanging them, but please stay after worship to help
if you're able. Thanks!

In the hospital?

Due to HIPAA privacy rules, the church doesn't usually receive notification from the hospitals when someone is admitted.

Please call the church office, or have a family member call, if you're in the hospital, or at home recuperating, and would like a visit or prayers, just give the office a call (936-4268).
Thanks.

BOOK CLUB

12:30 on Zoom. All are welcome.

Corning Community
Food Pantry
January Collection:

Thank you for supporting the Corning Community
Food Pantry.

This month we'll focus on proteins—
peanut butter and canned meats, tuna, etc.
And as always, food in pop-top cans is welcome! Thanks!!

The Blessing Box: Please bring donations to the Church Narthex or the bin in the Fellowship Hall.

We've discovered this time of year, because of the temperature fluctuations, boxed food items are better than canned, so please bring these if you're able. Thanks!

Emanuel Lutheran Church Council announces the Annual Congregational Meeting

Jan. 25, 2026 immediately following service.

A Dish-to-Pass will follow the meeting,

so please bring a dish and your own place setting.

There will be a sign-up-sheet in the narthex for the dish-to-pass.

We will elect new council members and officers as well as the Call Committee. The congregation will also vote to approve (or not approve) the revised church constitution, which was emailed in November. There is also a hard copy of the constitution in a notebook in the narthex.

Again this year, we'll try to offer a hybrid approach, holding the meeting in the Fellowship Hall in person along with Zoom meeting capability for those wishing to attend but unable to do so in person.

Ballots will be emailed along with the Annual Report 7-10 days prior to the meeting. To vote remotely you must attend the meeting, then you may drop off your completed ballot or scan and email it to office@emanuelcorning.org.

The link for the Zoom meeting will be emailed along with the Annual Report and Ballot prior to the meeting. Thank you - your attendance is very much appreciated. If you need a ride to attend church and the meeting, please contact someone on Church Council.

WELCA

At our December meeting we packed 12 trays of goodies! Very festive and delicious looking. They were then delivered by several of the ladies. Thank you all who contributed to this annual event. These special treats always put a smile on the faces of those who receive!

We wish you all a Blessed Christmas.
WELCA

All are welcome to attend our next meeting in our Fellowship Hall
Thursday, January 8, 2026 at 1:00 pm.

Steward Schedule

It would be great to have some new names on the monthly worship volunteer schedule. Would you like to try being an Assisting Minister, Reader, Usher, Greeter, Tech. Person, or on Altar Guild?!

We are in desperate need of volunteers to help with the Altar Guild. Currently we have only four "teams" of one or two people each to cover the entire year. This requires about 15 minutes prior to worship and about 30 minutes after worship to take care of the altar. Please consider volunteering to help. You can be any age or gender and will be trained by one of the current teams.

We always try to make sure family members serve on the same Sunday, so their names aren't scattered all over the schedule. Please prayerfully consider adding your name to the list. Just email the office@emanuelcorning.org to be added to the schedule, and let Brenda know which Sundays you're unavailable throughout the year.

Questions or concerns? Feel free to talk to Sharon, Lugene, or anyone on Church Council. Thanks.

From the Mailbag....

December 29, 2025

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for the staff appreciation gift presented at our Christmas Eve Service. It's deeply appreciated, especially this time of year.

The delicious cookie tray with a wide variety of special treats from WELCA was enjoyed too, perhaps too much! My pants are feeling a bit snug.

Wishing you Hope, Peace, Joy and Love as we finish out the Christmas Season and many blessings in the coming year,

Brenda Passmore, Administrative Assistant
